REPORT OF THE BOARD

To the Commissioner of Education:

The past fiscal year has been one full of satisfying work, surprises, and suspense! During the year the Division of Library Extension, within the limits of its staff and appropriations, has attempted to provide the State leadership needed to close the gaps in statewide library service and to foster the continuous improvement of public, school and state institution libraries everywhere in the State.

Planning the State program of public library development, conducting basic and elementary research on library problems and rendering consultative services on library operations have consumed the major portion of the staff's working hours, at times calling for schedules and work loads which become unreasonable. There is little time and no staff available for preparing promotional publications and publicity to channel information about the vital services being rendered, the potentialities of the Division's resources, and the part the Division has played in increasing the effectiveness of the work of local libraries. However, the record of the year's statistics will have to speak for itself to those who read this report.

Board of Library Commissioners

During the year we welcomed two new members to the Board of Library Commissioners. In June 1955, Governor Christian A. Herter appointed Channing L. Bete of Greenfield to succeed Charles Driscoll of Brookline whose term had expired. Mr. Bete has been a Trustee of the Greenfield Public Library since 1948, is a Director of the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association and was a member of Governor Herter's Administrative Commission on the Study of State Aid to Public Libraries. Mrs. George R. Wallace of Fitchburg was appointed in June 1956 by Governor Herter to succeed John J. Mahoney of Winchester whose five-year term expired. Mrs. Wallace is President of the Board of Trustees of the Fitchburg Public Library, was also a member of Governor Herter's Administrative Commission on the Study of State Aid to Public Libraries, is a Past President of the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association, and was cited in 1955 by the American Library Association as Trustee of the Year.

Report of Governor's Administrative Library Commission

On March 23, 1956, Governor Herter released to the Legislature House 2763—the Report of the Special Administrative Library Commission. The Division's Director upon invitation attended two meetings of the whole Commission and also prepared background statistics and other data pertinent to the subject at the Commission's request.

In brief the Commission recommended that a State program of public library assistance be initiated as follows:

1. That a grant-in-aid be made to each public library meeting minimum standards of service, on the basis of one half the salary (up to $1500 maximum grant per person) per library worker per 5,000 population or fraction thereof in area served.

2. That the three existing regional library centers be replaced by four, covering the entire State, to supply additional books and services to the smaller libraries; co-operative facilities for cataloging, acquisition and other work; training for library personnel; and active public information programs about library service.

3. That the Massachusetts Division of Library Extension be enlarged and strengthened to enable it to assume the responsibilities entailed by this program.

4. That the regional systems be built, in so far as possible, on existing large libraries, which should be reimbursed on a contract basis, for providing regional services.

Copies of H2763 have been distributed to all public libraries, to each Board of Library Trustees, and to all members of the Massachusetts Library Association. A special Library Development Committee of the Massachusetts Library Association has been named to study the recommendations and work toward the implementation of the Report.

Federal Library Services Bill

President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed into law on June 19, 1956 the Library Services Bill which thus became Public Law 597 of the 84th Congress, 2d Session. The Library Services Bill provides financial assistance from the federal government to promote the further extension by the several states of public library service to rural areas without such services or with inadequate services—focusing attention on the needs of the least well-served segments of our population; namely, the many millions living in small towns, villages and farming communities. For the 1957 fiscal year Massachusetts will receive a federal grant of $40,000 which must be matched on a 44-56 basis by state and/or local funds. The legislation has a terminal date and provides financial support for a five-year period to help accelerate the extension program of State library extension agencies. A Massachusetts plan for use of the Federal funds is being prepared and it is hoped that these Federal funds may serve as a lever or springboard to spark the recommendations of the Governor's Administrative Commission and eventually to provide services which will dovetail with these recommendations.

According to the Annual Reports

From 1955 annual reports submitted to the Division from 358 of the State's 395 public libraries we glean the following statistics. The total state-wide income for public library service in 1955 was $11,980,749.77—an increase of 9% over last year's figure. The 1955 per capita public library income figure for our Commonwealth was $2.48. Public library circulation hit an all-time high of 31,440,276 books or 6.5 books per capita—an increase of 20% over the 1954 figures.

The Division's Inter-Library Loan Section had a 10% increase in circulation this year; and reports from the three State Regional Library Centers show only a 3% decrease in book circulation there despite the fact that the bookmobile from the State Regional Library Center in Fall River was not on the road eight months of the year due to a staff vacancy.

Space at a Premium

Late in 1955 when the Office of Communications and Public Relations was moved to a new location in the basement, the Division acquired approximately two-thirds of the small office adjoining the rear of our quarters. This move permitted us to allocate desk space in that small office for the cataloger and a junior clerk, the Supervisor of School Libraries and a senior-clerk stenographer. The mailing section was moved from the rear of the main office to the small office where the electric book lift is located. The consolidation of the book processing section and the packaging and mailing of inter-library loans in more convenient areas has relieved some space pressures in the main office, and has made for a more smooth and efficient flow of book materials. The Division still needs several hundred additional lineal feet of book shelving to accommodate its present collection and more floor space to permit a better working arrangement for staff and equipment.

Special Projects

During the summer of 1955 an extensive and careful weeding of the book collection was carried on. Several hundred volumes which were obsolete or worn out through fair wear and tear were withdrawn. The Curriculum Guides, Courses of Study, Sample Report Cards, and Directories of State Departments of Education were brought up-to-date and arranged in such a way that they are more easily accessible. The Vertical Files were carefully checked; and a new policy adopted to include therein only items of interest on Education and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The Reference Collection was enlarged and brought up-to-date within our budget limitations.

The School Library Supervisor has begun a compilation of current statistics on school libraries culling information from the library section of the biennial reports of the senior high schools as collected by the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education.

In the fall of 1955 the Division's Supervisor of Field Services acted as the Coordinator for a very successful six-weeks Seminar for Public Library Trustees which was conducted at the Evening College of Clark University in Worcester.

A grant of funds from the Massachusetts Library Aid Association permitted the Division to print several hundred copies of General Library Legislation of Massachusetts. These library laws had not been compiled since the 1921 issue. The Massachusetts State Library cooperated with us in this project. Copies of the publication were distributed to all public libraries, state library extension agencies and to boards of library trustees.

Massachusetts Library Aid Association

The Massachusetts Library Aid Association—an incorporated "friends of libraries" group on the state level allocated several hundred dollars of funds to be spent under the jurisdiction of the Committee on Aid to Small Libraries of which the Division's Director is Chairman. Eight scholarships of seventy-five dollars each were awarded to librarians or library assistants from Ipswich, Nantucket Island, Plainfield, Rowley, Sheffield, Vineyard Haven, West Brookfield and West Newbury, to permit them to attend a three weeks' summer session on elementary library techniques at the University of New Hampshire, July 2-20, 1956. Five hundred dollars was allocated for the purchase of books for the library at the Massachusetts Correctional Institution at South Walpole. These books are to be selected and processed by the Division staff. An additional five hundred dollars was allocated to permit the Division to inaugurate a special in-service training program which will be beneficial to small public libraries. It is planned to offer a series of tuition free courses in various areas of the state in the fall of 1956. With another small appropriation from the Massachusetts Library Aid Association a secondhand catalog case was purchased and presented to the library in the town of New Braintree.

Publicity and Public Relations

The 1955 Reading List for the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs was compiled by the Division's Chief of Book Services.

Working in cooperation with the Book Liaison Committee of Publishers and Librarians, the Division received a total of 1112 review copies of books for children and young people. These review copies were sent out in exhibit collections to schools and libraries, were used for book talks, and to assist in selecting books and preparing annotations for the Monthly Selected Buying Lists.

Through the generosity of the Pan-American Union, El Jardin Infantil—a South American Exhibit of Children's Books was routed by the Division to twenty-four public libraries. Plans are underway to make this collection available for school libraries in the fall of 1956.

The Division cooperated with the U. S. Office of Education in distributing to local libraries the 1955 questionnaire on public library statistics. These statistics are gathered every five years. It is hoped that the new method of distribution will result in a higher percentage of questionnaires completed and returned to Washington.

The Supervisor of Field Services is acting for the American Library Association as editor and compiler of the revision of a 1942 publication entitled "State Participation in Public Library Service." She also served as Consultant on Library Work for an all-day conference in Boston on Employment Opportunities for Older Women. The conference was co-sponsored by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security, and the United Community Services Organization of Boston.

The School Library Supervisor served as an adviser for the Lady of the Bookshelf Program—a Saturday morning story hour telecast over WBZ-TV Channel 4.

During the course of the year the Division cooperated with the Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Department's Office of Public Relations and Communications, the American Library Association Public Library Division's Reference Section, the Massachusetts Federation of Labor, the Massachusetts Library Association, the Massachusetts Library Trustees Association, various regional and sectional library clubs, and many other organizations either in the distribution of materials or in the planning and executing of programs.

We were delighted to see the Ipswich, Mass., Public Library featured on the cover of the January 1956 issue of the A.L.A. Bulletin and to have the Massachusetts Public Library Film Cooperative given such prominent mention and praise in the 1956 A.L.A. publication entitled "Cooperative Film Services in Public Libraries" by Patricia B. Cory and Violet F. Myer.

Face Up to the Future

The impact of the Division of Library Extension on its users is impossible to measure. Our services and activities all combine into an educational operation designed to put before the libraries of the State the most progressive forward-looking policies and procedures for improved library service. We feel that the future of Massachusetts libraries will be mined from the lode of recommendations made in the Report of the Governor's Administrative Commission on State Aid to Public Libraries and that these recommendations will be projected towards implementation with the help of the Federal Library Services Bill. The days ahead are bound to be busy and challenging ones for the agency which provides statewide regulation and leadership in libraries.

OUTLINE OF SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES

July 1, 1955 - June 30, 1956

Information and Advisory Services

Collection, tabulation and compilation of public library statistics for 1955. Preparation and distribution of Division's News Letter, and the 66th Annual Report of the Board of Library Commissioners.

Three hundred seven (307) office conferences with librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries.

Forty-seven (47) librarians and seventy-four (74) position vacancies were registered for placement assistance.

Sixty-four (64) comparative statistical tables on salaries, hours of work, vacation and ill time and other standards of service, finance and working conditions compiled upon special request.

Twelve (12) library surveys conducted.

Assistance and advice offered via correspondence and telephone of which no specific record is kept.

Book Service Activities

From Headquarters in Boston:

- Monthly issues of Selected Buying List of Books compiled and distributed.
- Three issues of adult non-fiction accessions list published for inter-library loan use.
- One hundred fifty (150) schools in small communities furnished with classroom book collections.
- Book exhibits and special bibliographies prepared at request of local public libraries, schools, organizations and the various Divisions of the Department of Education.
- 28,160 books circulated by mail to public, school and state institution libraries. Included in this figure were 248 collections of books in foreign languages with Polish, Italian, German and French predominating.
- Under the State Certificate Reading Program:
 - The 1955 Supplement of the State Certificate Reading List was compiled and distributed.
 - 826 copies of the State Certificate Reading List were mailed out to 527 public and school libraries.
 - 6,625 Honor Certificates and 24,018 Five Book Certificates were issued.
